The Penny Lane Dance Academy originated in LA in 2003 and opened in NY in 2010. The curriculum was designed by Founder Andi McCormack. Andi was a professional dancer & then a recording artist with pop group I5 on Giant/Warner Records touring with Britney Spears and N'SYNC Andi is a certified teacher of ISTD Ballet. All Penny Lane ballet students will experience this world renowned syllabus. "We are known for being warm and fun and producing happy and technically trained dancers. As a professional dancer, I know my student's needs & I understand my PLDA Parents. Penny Lane strives to be different! It is our mission to teach our students the joy of giving back through charity and sharing the arts with others in our community. Every child has a home here at PLDA" Miss Merrideth will be managing the studio and available to assist you with any scheduling questions in addition to helping your child settle in their new dance school. Merrideth holds a Bachelor's degree in Dance and Drama from Bard College. She has been teaching and performing for over 25 years as a professional dancer and musical theatre actor. Merrideth has managed multiple top schools around the country and owned her own studio. She is thrilled to be returning to Penny Lane for her 8th year.
